

B. Altman & Co.

Men's Department.

Location, Left of Sixth Avenue Entrance.

Friday and Saturday:

300 Doz. MEN'S SILK SCARFS,

Narrow Four-in-Hand Shape,

Regular value $1.00,

At 58c. Each.

Eighteenth Street, Nineteenth Street and Sixth Avenue.

FERREE SHOT DOWN
AS HE SOUGHT AID.*BRAKEMAN WAS MISTAKEN
FOR HIGHWAYMAN.Wounded Twice as He was Seeking Help for Train Wreck Victims.

Theodore L. Ferree, a freight brakeman of the Pennsylvania road, is lying in St. Michael's Hospital, Newark, with a bullet in his shoulder and another in the region of his heart. He was shot by Thomas Carr, a saloon-keeper, while on an errand of mercy.

Ferree's train and the Rahway accommodation of the Pennsylvania road, crashed together on the main track last night near the Waverly freight yards, just outside of Elizabeth. Engineer George Hetzel, of the passenger train, was killed and several of the train crew injured. Ferree volunteered to bring whiskey for the injured, and dashed across the meadows to Carr's roadhouse, in Frelinghuysen avenue.

As he burst through the door Carr opened fire on him, mistaking him for a highwayman. Twice within a short time the saloon-keeper has been held up, and from the abrupt manner of Ferree's entrance, he mistook him for a robber. As Ferree fled to the door he shouted out the nature of his mission.

Shortly after Ferree's mishap another brakeman entered the saloon on the same errand and narrowly escaped being shot by Carr. He was saved by Olaf Hanson and Anton Thom, who were in the saloon when Ferree was shot. They told the police that the shooting of the brakeman was unjustifiable, as Carr opened fire before the man had time to state his business.

Carr was arrested and Ferree carried to St. Michael's Hospital. His arrival in Newark brought to the authorities of that city the first intimation of the wreck. Aid was at once sent to the scene.

The collision was due to a mistake in signals. Both train crews claimed they had been given the white light for open track. The passenger train, with five cars filled with New York, Jersey City and Newark passengers, bound for points west of Rahway, was going at top speed across the meadows, when the freight cut across the main track diagonally.

Seeing that a collision was inevitable, the crew of the freight train, stopped to reverse his lever and was pinioned down by the wreckage of his cab. He was dead when taken out. His ribs had been crushed and he was scalded by steam. Other members of the train crews were badly bruised and lacerated in jumping.

All the windows in the passenger coaches were broken by the shock and the passengers were badly shaken up.

Mrs. John Smiley, of Linden, N. J., was the only one badly injured. She was thrown from her seat and turned a complete somersault before she fell in the aisle. She was attended by Police Surgeon D. L. McCormick, of Newark.

DIVAL KILLED
BY OLD INJURY.*STRUCK ON HEAD BY A BEAM
THREE YEARS AGO.The Father of the Private Secretary to Chauncey M. Depew
Succumbs at Age of 81.

William C. Duval, father of Horace C. Duval, who was private secretary to Chauncey M. Depew, lies dead at his home, No. 3 Monroe place, Brooklyn, where he has lived for forty-four years. He was struck on the head with a beam in the cellar of his house three years ago. He never recovered from the effects of the blow which caused his death yesterday.

Mrs. Duval was born in Malden lane eighty-one years ago. He was the oldest surviving alumnus of Wesleyan College, at Middletown, Conn. He was an agent of the Government during the civil war, and with Samuel Longfellow, brother of the poet, he organized the Second "Militaria Society of Brooklyn." For many years he was treasurer of the Brooklyn Chess Club.

ANOTHER BRIDGE VICTIM.David Rosenheim Falls and the Throng Tramples on Him.

While running for a train to-day on the platform at the Brooklyn end of the Bleecker, David Rosenheim, of No. 279 Bleecker street, became confused and fell.

The crowd behind him could not stop and ran over him. Probably fifty men used him as a hurdle before policemen dragged him out of danger. He was treated by an ambulance surgeon, who found that he was severely bruised about the back, and it is likely, injured internally. He was sent to his home in a cab.

Black Dress Goods.

1,500 yards 45 inch
Sheer Black Veiling, imported to retail at $1.25 a yard, special to-morrow at 78 cts. a yard.

Silk Remnants.
1200 Remnants of
Plain Taffeta Silk,
in a great variety of colors,
tags, will be sold to-morrow,
Friday, at

50 cts. a yard,
former prices 75 & 85c. a yd.
Lord & Taylor,
Broadway & 20th St.

MINNIE KURTZ HAS A HABEAS CORPUS.*APPEARS BEFORE JUSTICE
BEACH TO-MORROW.Warden of the Tombs Directed to Produce Star Witness to Police Plot.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

Charles L. Hoffman got a writ of habeas corpus for Minnie Kurtz to-day, directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce District Attorney Jerome's prisoner before Justice Beach in the Supreme Court at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Hoffman & Wahl appear on the record as counsel for the Kurtz woman, but it is hinted that their clients are really some people high up in the late Tammany police administration.

Minnie Kurtz was the leading witness against ex-Wardman Bisset and Capt. Diamond, but disappeared just before the trials.

She was captured by Jerome's men and locked up on a charge of bribing witnesses in these two cases, two witnesses declaring that the woman had $25,000 of somebody's money to stop the exposure of Tammany police blackmail.

The woman was defiant at first, but when no one came to her relief and she realized that she was deserted in the Tombs, she said significantly:

"If they don't get me out of here I'll tell all I know, so help me God, and it will hurt more than one."

Mr. Hoffman denies that his firm was retained by anyone but the woman herself.

District Attorney Jerome refused to accept the bondsmen offered by Mr. Hoffman on the $3,000 bail fixed by Magistrate Cornell yesterday, and the application for a writ followed.

The affidavits submitted by Mr. Hoffman says that Minnie Kurtz is held in $500 bail on a charge of misdemeanor and is ready to give bail, but that she is also held in $2,500 bail, which she cannot furnish, on a complaint signed by Therese Delinger and John D. Maher, which, if true, would not constitute any crime.

The affidavits were attached to the paper. Therese Delinger says that Minnie Kurtz came to her house, No. 141 Second avenue, last November, and at the request of the Kurtz woman and as her agent she paid to John D. Maher as the agent of Lena Schmidt $25,000, provided that Lena Schmidt and another woman, witnesses against Capt. Diamond, would go away to Europe and not testify against the Captain. She alleges that Minnie Kurtz conspired for the "perversion and obstruction of justice and the due administration of the law."

John D. Maher of No. 202 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, says in his affidavit in the complaint on which Minnie Kurtz is held that he met her near the Delinger woman's house on election day. He said: "Hello, Minnie, fixing things up?" A few minutes later Therese Delinger offered him an agent of Lena Schmidt the $25,000.

John Daniell Sons & Sons

HAVE MADE UP

A LARGE SPECIAL SALE OF HOSIERY
at from $\frac{1}{3}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ regular retail prices.

FOR WOMEN. About 10,000 pair imported. All new samples sent to this country to select from and are all choice, fresh goods.

One lot fine Lisle thread, cotton and cashmere, in new stripes and colors, also lace effects; on sale at, per pair..... 50c

Another lot of fancy and plain cashmere, also Lisle thread and cotton, in vertical, plaid and lace effects; on sale at, per pair..... 35c

Another lot of fine Lisle thread and cotton, in fancy stripes, plain colors, embroidered and lace effects; on sale at, per pair..... 25c

Also all the odds and ends, styles too numerous to mention; on sale at, per pair..... 12 1/2c

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

6 pair for $1.38.

6 pair for $2.00.

Simpson Crawford Co.Men's New Spring Shirts,

$1.50 and $1.00 Kinds, at 78c.

Who said Friday is unlucky? Surely no man will who gets a chance to-morrow at these New Shirts for Spring, fresh from the factory. The money you meant for one will often buy two. No amount of money can buy newer styles.

Mostly in white and light grounds, with neat stripes and figures, many of which are the popular black and whites; a sprinkling, too, of the heavier and darker colorings.

Materials are Madras—woven stripes, printed figured Madras and soft finished Percales.

The shirts are ample in body size, perfect fitting, positively correct as to make and finish, hand laundered, open front and back. Mostly detached cuffs; a few with the narrow attached cuffs.

An unequalled chance to buy a correct shirt at a very low price. Sizes 14 to 17..... 78

Clothing for Boys.

If you have a boy under 10 years Friday's Special Sale will doubly interest you. Here are sizes for the little fellows in Overcoats, Wash Suits, Flannel Waists at less than half. All that are left of the different sorts.

Boys' Overalls, sizes 3 to 6, 6 to 8, military effect, with brass buttons, vertical pockets, velvet top collars and made up in first class manner; about 100 original prices..... $1.50

Boys' all-wool flannel Waists, all sizes and colors, worth double..... 50

Choice of elegant assortment of Wash Suits worth up to $5.00, sizes 3 to 10 years, in all desirable patterns and fabrics..... $1.65

Men's fancy Wash Vests just enough for one day's selling; worth up to $3.50..... 95

In the Basement.

Let two departments give a notion of the Friday points of interest in the bright, roomy basement. Books are there, Trunks and Bags are there, a little world of other tempting priced things are there. We point to but two.

Four White Goods Specials. Wash Goods, 10 Cents.

Some have sold at nearly four times that. These prices will keep yardsticks flying.

All sorts of Cotton WASH FABRICS, in short lengths, value up to 36c, yard..... 10

Fire Printed DIMITIES, small or large effects, yard..... 10

Good MULL, very pretty designs, yard..... 10

GINGHAM of good quality, yard..... 10

Ess-See-Ess Shoes for Women.

The equal of any $5.00 Shoe for wear, style and fit, and they cost but $3.50. It's a dollar and a half saved. Here are forty styles of Ess-See-Ess shoes, 20 styles of ties and 20 styles of slippers, suitable for evening and dress occasions. One price..... $3.50

Also good quality shoes for boys and girls at moderate prices.

Simpson Crawford Co.

Sixth Avenue, 19th and 20th Streets.

HIS LITTLE SISTER
SUFFERS IN VAIN.*BABY BOY DIES DESPITE HER
HEROIC RESCUE.Thirteen-Year-Old Girl Grabs Him
All Alone and Is Boldly Burned.

Crying aloud in agony, little Elizabeth Wahrendorf, thirteen years old, endeavored to save her three-year-old brother, Edward, from burning to death in their home, at No. 44 Eleventh avenue, yesterday evening.

The boy died at Roosevelt Hospital within a few hours. The little heroine now lies in bed with her pretty yellow hair singed and her hands wrapped in bandages. Her injuries are not serious.

Arnold, another brother, aged nine years, was also slightly burned.

The parents had gone to attend Lenten services at church, and Elizabeth was left in charge of her brothers and sisters, five in all. Edward was looking at a picture book. He tried to get up on a table and knocked a lamp over.

The burning oil ran over his clothing, and he fell, screaming, to the floor.

Elizabeth seized him in her arms and carried him to the bed endeavoring to put out the flames by rolling him in the bed clothes. The flames burned her hands cruelly, and her hair caught fire. But she still tried to extinguish the flames which enveloped her baby brother.

Policeman Henry McMahon was passing by when a little girl ran out and wildly alarmed him. He dashed up into the room and saw a plumed and enveloped the two children in its folds.

Ladies Cure
Tobacco HabitSecretly at Home—Trial Package Free to All Who Send Name and Address.